Qualifications:

Trusted Leadership for a County on the Move: Peter Corroon has served as the Salt Lake County Mayor for the last four years, providing services to over 1 million residents within Salt Lake County, including its 16 cities and unincorporated areas.

Mayor Corroon has focused on “planning, not politics” to create an open, honest, fiscally responsible and professional government that uses taxpayer dollars wisely. While holding the line on property taxes, Mayor Corroon has focused on protecting our natural environment, improving public safety, providing more educational opportunities, and planning for growth by increasing mass transit and building new recreation centers, parks and libraries throughout Salt Lake County.

For Peter Corroon, serving as County Mayor is not about polling, winning debates or having his name in the spotlight. ... It’s about trusted leadership, fiscal responsibility, stewardship, being responsive to citizens, and making correct decisions based on facts.

Mayor Corroon also serves on the boards of the National Association of Counties, the local United Way chapter, Envision Utah, the Utah Technology Council, the Economic Development Corporation of Utah, and the Salt Lake Area Chamber of Commerce which awarded him “Elected Official of the Year.”

Peter and his wife, Amy, have three children.
